No. 13
Helen Wainwright
A half dozen movie close-ups of sixteen-year-old Helen Wainwright, of Corona, L. I. and the New York Women's Swimming Association, who is America's newly crowned all-round feminine swimming champion. The pretty mermaid shattered the world's record for the 150-yard free style at Brighton Beach on Memorial Day covering the distance in 1 minute, 49 3-5 seconds, which clipped one-fifth of a second from the international standard set by Mrs. Charlotte Boyle Clune last summer.

"I began swimming when just

"a baby and swam my first

"race when only nine, so

"I guess that proper action

"in the water is sort of

"second nature to me.

STARTING THE WHIPPETS. An interesting photo of Miss Elsa Horne with Mrs. C. G. West's "Medford Dot" and Mr. E. Coe Kerr with "Millhall Midget" just before the start of the Mineola Stakes for whippets, a feature of the nineteenth annual outdoor show of the Ladies' Kennel Club of America held on the Mineola Fair Grounds last Saturday.

Right—AN OSCULATORY EQUINE. Broomstick just couldn't resist the temptation to plant a slathery kiss upon the cheek of Mrs. Dora V. Scott when that well known equestrienne paid a visit to his stall at the annual Tuxedo Horse Show. The two-day affair, which attracted many members of society to Tuxedo the end of last week, proved to be the most successful in the history of these annual exhibits.

GUESS AGAIN! Looks like Bill Tilden, the world's greatest tennis player, doesn't he? Acts like him, too. But he isn't. He is England's first class double of "Philadelphia Bill"—R. C. Wertheim playing in the Surrey County championships, England. C. & G.

Right—BALLOON RACE WINNER. Major Oscar Westover, of the U. S. Army Air Service, who won the national balloon race, starting from Milwaukee on May 31st. The big bag piloted by Westover and his aide, Lieut. C. F. Bond, landed in Quebec, covering 850 miles in seventeen hours and fifteen minutes of flight. The winning balloon was equipped with a General Electric radio receiving set which enabled the pilots to pick up special broadcast weather reports and plot their course accordingly.

Left—SUNK ON DRY LAND. The good ship "Rock and Rye" steamed out over the Hempstead plains on Memorial Day and furnished the real thrill of the Mitchell Field aviation meet by allowing itself to be hopelessly sunk by the remarkable bombing of Lieutenant Victor E. Bertrandas, who scored three direct hits out of five, finding his mark while flying at a height of 3,000 feet.
